SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
RECORD OF THE OLD
GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES.

The Society shall be called "The Old Girls' Association of the Oldham Hulme Grammar School for Girls."

The President shall be the acting Head Mistress of the School, and the Secretary shall be one of the members of the School Staff.

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by a Committee, consisting of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and fifteen representative members, of whom fourteen shall be elected by the Old Girls, and one by the members of Form Upper VI. Of the fourteen Old Girls' representatives, two shall retire annually in rotation, but they shall be eligible for re-election, and the election shall take place at the December meeting.

Members who, without good cause assigned, absent themselves from committee meetings for two consecutive years, shall be considered to have resigned, and their places shall be filled up at the December meeting at the end of the second year during which they were absent from the meetings.

Full members (i.e. girls who are able to attend the meetings) shall pay a yearly subscription of 2/-. Country members, who are not eligible to attend meetings, shall pay 1/-. Both subscriptions will include the "Record" and all notices of meetings.

All subscriptions are due in December, and may be paid at the meeting. No notices will be sent to any member whose subscription is two years in arrears.

There shall be two meetings of the Association each year—on the first Thursday in December and the first Thursday in July, with the exception that in alternate years a picnic on the first Saturday in July shall take the place of the summer meeting at the School.

During the last week in November each member shall send to the Secretary at least one warm, useful garment for the poor. (Old clothes are also welcome).

The "Record" shall be issued during the Spring Term, and shall be sent to all members who have paid their subscriptions.

OFFICERS FOR 1914.

President—Miss Clark.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Evington.

Committee (In order of Election)—

P. Rye	P. Lansdell
Mrs. Watson (B. Holt)	Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson)
Margt. Letham	M. Wood
S. Rothwell	B. Fletcher
V. Phillips	Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher)
B. Mellor	M. Kershaw
M. Smith	M. Johnson
M. Chadwick, Form VI.

Since our last issue of the "Record," we have to report an increase of about twelve in the membership of the Association. Many girls join at once on leaving school, and we may congratulate ourselves that the meetings are really representative of every period of the School's life. This is sufficiently illustrated by the elections to the Committee which took place last December. Mary Kershaw and Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher), both zealous and useful members for many years, were re-elected, and May Johnson, one of our youngest Old Girls, was chosen in place of Gladys Hammersley, whose resignation we regret to announce. The removal of the family to St. Annes makes it impossible for her to attend committees, though she utterly refuses to become merely a Country Member. Marion Chadwick has been chosen by Form VI as their representative for the year.

Knowing that the members will welcome a series of portraits of former mistresses, we begin this year by reproducing a portrait of our first Head Mistress, Miss Foxall (Mrs. Walton), who, by her wise direction of the School in its infancy, contributed so largely to the foundation of the sound tradition and high tone which prevail there. Who can measure the far reaching influence of her Wednesday morning addresses which were such an inspiration to the girls, and which we know are still remembered?

There is now an Old Girls' Honours Book. Miss Shaw has again proved herself our good friend by printing into it most beautifully the names and attainments of those who have won academic distinctions.

Another interesting book which appeared for the first time in December, and to which contributions are solicited, is the Old Girls' Album. A glance at its contents will best explain its scope.—A charming snap-shot of little Joan Mollison, the daughter of Mrs. Mollison (Miss M. Walker); Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw) and Baby Tom; John Wallis Chapman, aged 5 months, the son of Mrs. Chapman (N. Anderton); Mrs. Williamson's (D. Mayall) house at Southport; Captain Williamson and their little girl in a hammock; Mrs. Williamson and her three children, a charming group; Baby Helen Millington, daughter of Mrs. E. Millington (S. Lees); three views of Mrs. Stott's (L. Hall) house and garden near Moscow; Mrs. Smith's (Miss Bott) house at Wells, two views. Portraits of Old Girls alone will not be allowed to reach the album, they will be intercepted by the Secretary for her private collection.

The Old Girls do not even yet realise as they should their responsibility in the matter of supplying the Editor's Note Book with news. We have gleaned a certain amount of information, but we are confident that much still remains unrecorded.

There are still some copies of the last School Chronicle containing an excellent portrait of Miss Gregory. Miss Gwynne or Miss Evington will be happy to send one to any member on receipt of 1/-.

The O.G.A. Badge, price 3/6 each, may be had on application to the Secretary.

It is most important that changes of address should be at once notified to the Secretary.

MEETINGS IN 1913.

This year it was the turn for the biennial picnic which took place on Saturday, July 5th. The place chosen was Liverpool, our chief object being to visit the Cathedral, or rather that portion of it which is now open to the public. A full account of the excursion has been sent in by O. Garfitt. Some of those who stayed at home because the committee's choice did not appeal to them will perhaps regret it as they read of the varied experiences of the day.

The following members made up the party :—

Miss Mitchell, Miss Evington, J. Bowes, W. & M. Broadbent, A. Buckley, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), L. Dunkerley, Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson), O. Garfitt, E. Holt, E., N., & M. Johnson, M. Kershaw, M. Leech, B. & G. Mellor, Mrs. Mills (M. Brown), E. Newton, V. Phillips, B. Potter, M. Prosser, G. Rodgers, S. Rothwell, P. Rye, D. Stanton, M. Stott, E. Thorp, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), G. Wilkinson, A. & M. Wood, Mona Wood, E. Wrigley.

On December 4th one hundred and two Old Girls assembled at the School for what proved to be the most absorbed and silent meeting we have had. Your Secretary from the platform watched with much amusement the close attention of all bent on producing a coherent letter out of words transposed in such a way as to make nonsense in their original form; for example "My dear Entire Hat" became "My dear Henrietta," and so on to the end. A small prize, a china bowl, was offered for the most correct rendering. The result was a tie of five, who drew lots as the shortest way of settling the point. Miss McHardy drew the prize, which by common consent she deserved, for she had been the most expert at guessing in her little group.

Just before going down to supper L. Garfitt gathered the members about the platform to witness the presentation to Miss Evington of a handsome diamond ring and a fountain pen, subscribed for by one hundred and eighty members in recognition of her work as Treasurer since the founding of the Association in 1899, to which office was added the Secretaryship on the resignation of Miss Bott in 1901. During supper the gifts were passed round so that those who had not yet seen them might do so.

After supper the members proceeded to the election of three members of Committee. Mrs. Orme and M. Kershaw were re-elected, and M. Johnson was chosen in place of G. Hammersley.

After "just one dance" we all joined hands in a great circle and closed our evening with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Many useful garments were again sent in for the Hulme Charity; they were exhibited at the School Concert and Bazaar on December 3rd. We also acknowledge with thanks subscriptions from two Old Girls who live too far away to send garments.

The following members signed the visitors' book :—

Miss Alexander, Miss Baguley, Miss Clegg, Miss Evington, Miss Gwynne, Miss McHardy, Mrs. Airey (S. Fletcher), G. Armstrong, A. Ashton, C., L., and D. Ashton, M. and D. Ashworth, B. Bagot, Mrs. Barratt (E. Andrew), M. Bentley, E. Blomiley, D. Brierley, E. Bright, W. and M. Broadbent, L. Caldwell, D. Carter, A. Chadderton, M. Chadwick, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), M. and J. ## GAMES.

CRICKET.

Phyllis Rye as captain of the O.G.A. Cricket team reports that two matches were played last year. For the first, played on June 28th, 1913, the team consisted of :—P. Rye (captain), M. Johnson, M. Lees, I. Gillespie, D. Ashworth, D. Brierley, F. Harker, D. Ashton, M. Newton, H. Johnson, there being ten Old Girls against eleven for the School. The result was a disaster for the Old Girls, who lost by 24 runs to 104. The Captain commends the persistent, steady bowling of M. Johnson, without which the defeat might have been even more crushing.

The return match played on July 15th, 1913, though lost, was much more creditable, in fact, it was a really good game. P. Rye as captain had in her team M. Johnson, D. Ashworth, M. Wood, E. Shaw, D. Brierley, C. Ashton D. Ashton, A. Brearley, M. Ashworth, F. Harker. The match ended in a win for the School, the score being 59 runs to 45. The Captain specially commends the bowling of M. Johnson, E. Shaw and C. Ashton, who quickly gave our team their innings. The batting was on the whole weaker, though M. Johnson made the very good score of 17, and carried her bat. E. Shaw was not far behind with 10 runs.

TENNIS.

Here the Old Girls proved too strong for the School unaided, as indeed they should. Tennis is a game which demands long, steady practice if one is to excel, practice for which those who are still at school have neither the time nor the opportunities. The first match was played on June 19th, 1913, the players being E. Lawton and M. Smith; E. Robinson and M. Wood; P. Rye and L. Dunkerley. The Old Girls won every sett.

The return match, played on July 8th, 1913, against three girls and three mistresses was less happy. The players were M. and A. Smith; E. Robinson and M. Wood; L. Dunkerley and J. Bowes. The Old Girls won two setts out of seven.

HOCKEY.

There have been two matches played between the Old Girls and the School. The first, on November 5th, 1913, resulted in a draw, the score being 1—1. In the Old Girls' team were D. Ashworth, May Wood, F. Whitehead, D. Brierley, M. Johnson (captain), N. Pennington, M. Horsfall, M. Whittaker.

The second match was played on February 24th, 1914, and resulted in a win for the School, 3—0. The Old Girls' team consisted of D. Ashworth, F. Whitehead, B. Bagot, F. Harker, M. Johnson (captain), D. Brierley, M. Horsfall, N. Pennington, P. Rye.

Although the Old Girls had a full team for this match, they were unable to improve on the result of the former match. The small ground requires a fineness of play which the Old Girls had not at their disposal, all being used to a full-sized field where there is more room to move. The School have a splendid defence, and although the Old Girls' forwards played well they were unable to score. Owing to the rain the match had to be stopped for a time, but it was resumed when the shower had ceased. The School was then leading by 1—0, and the rest had apparently refreshed them and made the Old Girls lazy.

Altogether the matches were very enjoyable. It is good to be able to go back to School and pretend to be schoolgirls for a time without having the joys (?) of homework.

MAY JOHNSON.

It has been suggested that, to facilitate the forming of teams for our various matches against the School, we ask those Old Girls who are willing to take part, to send in their names to the Secretary together with the games they play. Of these names a list will be made from which the captains can draw when making up their teams. This should be done as soon as possible, for the cricket and tennis seasons are opening, and matches will be arranged during the summer.

THE PICNIC.

The Committee's choice of a place for last summer's Old Girls' Picnic caused a good deal of discussion among the members of the Association. The idea of proceeding "en crocodile" through the main streets of Liverpool on a Saturday morning really did appear a trifle alarming, but when July 5th arrived thirty-five brave spirits turned up at the station, mostly equipped, as the weather was far from promising, with umbrellas and cloaks, just by way of keeping the rain at a distance.

On arriving at Exchange Station, Liverpool, the party first made its way to the Cunard Offices to see if the Company could be prevailed on to give permits for all to inspect the liner Laconia which was in dock preparing to sail the following Tuesday. However, they hard-heartedly refused to allow more than the fifteen for whom Miss Evington had already obtained permission, so putting aside for the present the knotty problem of who should be included in the lucky number, we made all haste to the Overhead Railway and caught the train to the Huskisson Dock, where the drawing of lots took place.

The appearance of our large party here, as in the city streets, caused a good deal of interest and comment. People audibly wondered "what" we could be, and possibly one or two who whispered the word "Suffrageite" wondered if the one who drew the lucky number would proceed to plant a bomb on the liner!

At last the selection was made, and away went the fifteen in charge of Miss Mitchell, while the rest followed more slowly, and from the dock side stood looking so wistfully at the "forbidden land" that the man in charge took compassion on us, and said we might all go on board.

There was very little we did not see. Beginning with the crew's quarters and the steerage, we went through the second, and finally the first class, and up to the captain's bridge, examining everything as we passed, not excepting the ship's cat which was revelling in the luxury of the first class couches. The charming white cabins, the writing room, saloons, verandah café, with its ivied lattice were all so attractive that we longed to make a trip across the "herring pond" immediately, though possibly one or two might have thought differently had the ship begun to roll a little. It was rather disappointing to find the gymnasium locked; perhaps the apparatus is too much a temptation to visitors. Having encountered the other party on board much to their surprise, we finished our inspection of the boat, Miss Evington called the roll and again we set off, this time for the Maison Lyons where the inner woman was refreshed with anything from a mixed grill to ices, according to each member's inclination. Here again the size of our party called forth remarks, and a Frenchman who politely gave up his position at the paying desk with "Place aux dames" counted us as we went by.

The next move was to the new Cathedral which, even in this city of great buildings, will be a conspicuous landmark. At present only the Lady Chapel is finished, but that is most exquisite with its storied windows, its carvings, its embroideries and its golden lamps. The carving, and the beautiful stained windows, each of which represents some woman saint of ancient or modern times, interested us in particular,

There was not a great deal of time left for the Walker Art Gallery, but it was sufficient for us to find the well-known favourites of which Liverpool is the proud possessor, such as the Dante pictures, Greiffenhagen's "Idyll," "When the children are asleep" and several others.

Four o'clock found us boarding the ferry, and after the short sail across to New Brighton we took the car to Oarside Farm where tea was set for us in the orchard. That finished, we had an hour or two in which to explore the district. At the farm there was a model dairy which we were at liberty to inspect; and the country around was very pretty, but most of the party made haste to the sands or the promenade, glad to feel themselves at the sea-side.

Unfortunately these good times soon come to an end; we reluctantly boarded the ferry again, arriving in time for the 8-40 train to Manchester which gave us a good connection to Oldham, and we reached home tired out but cheerful, feeling sorry for those members of the O.G.A. who had been misguided enough to stay at home, and very grateful to Miss Evington who had taken the trouble to visit Liverpool beforehand to make arrangements for us.

O. GARFITT.

LECTURE.

On November 1st, 1913, Bertha Martland gave a lantern lecture at the School on "Three Florentine Painters." She is the first Old Girl who has lectured for us at the School, and we heartily congratulate her on behalf of the O.G.A. The lecture was delivered with a natural ease and fluency which held the attention of all who listened to her. The lecturer has spent much time in Florence, and devoted herself there to a careful study of the three masters of whom she treated. It was a great pleasure to listen to one who so thoroughly understood her subject, and we shall look forward to other opportunities of hearing her.

For a full report of the lecture, we must refer our readers to the School Chronicle.

Oldham,

March, 1914.

My dear Old Girls,

I am glad of the opportunity which the issue of the "Record" affords of thanking you all for that most beautiful gift presented to me by Lillian Garfitt on your behalf at the last meeting. The secret had been most carefully kept, for though I had addressed all the notices for the meeting myself, I knew nothing of the slips enclosed by my co-secretary who folded and stamped them. Great then was my surprise when you all gathered round the platform and Lillian put into my hand your gift—that beautiful ring with the brilliant, sparkling diamond in its claw setting, and the fountain pen. My first thought was, "I wish they had not done it," but I quickly realised that the giving of it had been a pleasure to you, and in that assurance lies the real value of your gift to me.

And so, my dear Old Girls, I do thank you from my heart for this expression of your affection, though I needed no such proof, for I am conscious at every meeting that I can always be sure of your loyal support, and that a real bond of sympathy exists between us.

Not the least of my treasures is a dainty note book presented at the same time containing the names of all the subscribers—a very large number. I was much touched to find among them the names of some who are not members of the Association.

I wear your beautiful gift constantly, and with all the more pleasure, because it came from you. You know, I feel sure, how warm a place my Old Girls and their Association hold in my thoughts, indeed, I think the O.G.A. has grown to be a sort of hobby with me, and all work in connection with it gives me the greatest pleasure. Even the terrors of Editorship are mitigated when I see how much you look forward to each issue of the "Record."

And so I close with one more heartfelt expression of thanks to you all, and earnest wishes for the well-being of the Old Girls' Association which is so dear to me.

Yours affectionately,

FANNY EVINGTON.

The following is an extract from the letter of one of our Old Girls who is a nurse at the Samaritan Hospital in Belfast.

Samaritan Hospital, Belfast.

We are very busy over here just now. In addition to the Hospital work, classes are being held in home nursing, bandaging, &c., in case we have Home Rule, and then war. The volunteer nurses are drilling and getting lectures each week. The Matron here goes twice a week, and I have to help to teach bandaging. People over here seem quite concerned in case Home Rules comes.

B. MELLODEW.
