

THE HULME GRAMMAR
SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
RECORD OF THE OLD
GIRLS' ASSOCIATION,
OLDHAM. = = 1916=1917.

THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES.

The Society shall be called "The Old Girls' Association of the Oldham Hulme Grammar School for Girls."

The President shall be the acting Head Mistress of the School, and the Secretary shall be one of the members of the School Staff.

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by a Committee consisting of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer and fifteen representative members, of whom fourteen shall be elected by the Old Girls, and one by the members of Form Upper VI. Of the fourteen Old Girls representatives, two shall retire annually in rotation, but they shall be eligible for re-election, and the election shall take place at the December meeting.

Members who, without good cause assigned, absent themselves from committee meetings for two consecutive years, shall be considered to have resigned, and their places shall be filled up at the December meeting at the end of the second year during which they were absent from the meetings.

Full members (i.e., girls who are able to attend the meetings) shall pay a yearly subscription of 2/-. Country members, who are not eligible to attend meetings, shall pay 1/-. Both subscriptions will include the "Record" and all notices of meetings.

All subscriptions are due in December, and may be paid at the meeting. No notices will be sent to any member whose subscription is two years in arrears.

There shall be two meetings of the Association each year—on the Tuesday preceding the School's Annual Entertainment, which is a fixture for the first Wednesday in December, and on the first Thursday in July, with the exception that in alternate years a picnic on the first Saturday in July shall take the place of the summer meeting at school.

During the last week in November each member shall send to the Secretary at least one warm, useful garment for the poor. (Old clothes are also welcome).

The "Record" shall be issued during the Spring Term, and shall be sent to all members who have paid their subscriptions.

OFFICERS FOR 1917.

President—Miss Clark.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Evington.

Committee (in order of election)

P. Lansdell	P. Rye
Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson)	S. Rothwell
Mrs. Gillespie (May Wood)	Mrs. Watson (B. Holt)
B. Fletcher	Mrs. Gill (W. Leech)
Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher)	V. Phillips (re-elected)
M. Kershaw	M. Smith (re-elected)
M. Johnson	E. Macpherson

Miss Quarmby, representing the Staff.
M. Wilde, Form VI.

This year the national need for strict economy is greater than ever, we make no apology therefore for condensing the Record as much as possible. For this reason also we have decided not to have a portrait with this number.

The willing response of our Old Girls to the suggestion to celebrate the coming of age of the school by raising £21 for the Star and Garter Home for Disabled Soldiers and Sailors produced more than the sum asked for. In all £25 were sent up. The official receipt will be placed in the Album as a permanent record of our Birthday Gift

There are many names to add to our Roll of Honour, and there must be others of whom we have not heard. If each member would follow the example of one or two of our Committee members, and send to the Editor from time to time items of interest that she has collected, we should have no anxiety as to "copy" when the spring term draws near.

Even those of our Old Girls who are debarred from active service may do real service by seeing to it as far as they can that there be no waste or extravagance even in trifles in their own homes, and by loyally submitting to such restrictions as the Government may deem it advisable to impose. Among the many lessons that the war is teaching us is that of proving how much we can do without!

For the period of the war we cannot supply badges, the last in stock has been sold. The makers have sent word that they are now government controlled, and owing to urgent war work they cannot undertake any other work at present.

The additions to the Album this year are:—Dorothy Joan and Lawrence John, children of Mrs. Atkins (M. Lansdell); Lewis Carroll, daughter of Mrs. Mann (G. Millington); Reginald, son of Mrs. Hamer (E. Mallalieu); John Sausmarez, son of Mrs. Carey (E. Neild); Helen and Nancy, daughters of Mrs. Millington (S. Lees); Girls' High School, Settle, where Doris Warhurst is teaching; Council School, Stockingford, where Gertrude Brown is teaching; Russian peasant and his mother, sent by D. Brocklehurst.

The summer meeting should be a picnic this year. As, under present circumstances we can make no certain fixtures, members will do well to keep free the first Thursday and the first Saturday in July.

MEETINGS IN 1916.

The summer meeting took place at the School on July 6th. For once our usual good fortune as to weather forsook us, and we had to spend the whole of the time indoors. The Committee was equal to the emergency, and quickly improvised sports in the hall. Much amusement was caused by the races, potato race, three-legged race, and others, and those who did not care to compete enjoyed their customary gossip with old friends. The winners of the races were Susan Rothwell and Elsie Lawton, who received each a little leather purse-bag, just a tiny keepsake as evidence of their victory.

The following sixty-two members were present:—Miss Clark, Miss Benton, Miss Evington, Mrs. Airey (S. Fletcher), M. and D. Ashworth, Mrs. Atkins (M. Lansdell), M. Bladd, M. Broadbent, Mrs. Calder (B. Mellor), D. Carter, A. Chadderton, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), Mrs. Eastwood (B. Potter), A. Farrow, B. Fletcher, Mrs. Fletcher (M. Crompton), G. Foote, Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson), O. Garfitt, Mrs. Hamer (E. Mallalieu), Mrs. Hawkyard (M. Varley), E. Henthorne, Doris Jackson, H. and M. Johnson, M. Kershaw, D. Knott, E. Lawton, M. Lewis, A. Lowe, Janet and E. Macpherson, Mrs. Mallalieu (A. Whitehead), C. Mallalieu, M. Mathews, M. Mellodew, G. Mellor, L. Mercer, D. Millington, Mrs. Mills (M. Browne), I. Mills, Mrs. Morton (Effie Shaw), K. Parkyn,

S. Rothwell, P. Rye, F. Simpson, G. Smith, L. Snowdon, S. Stock, E. Tetlow, Mrs. Turner (J. Crompton), J. Varley, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), A. Watson, A. Whitehead, F. Whitehead, M. Whittaker, D. Wilde, G. Wilkinson, Mrs. Wolstencroft (G. Dearden), Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson), I. Wood, M. G. Wood.

Owing to the stringent lighting orders we had to make an important change in regard to our winter meeting. It took place on Saturday afternoon, December 2nd. As in the two previous years we held a working party, and the garments begun on the day and finished later helped materially to swell our annual parcel for Hulme, which comprised, in addition to warm comforts for the children, many really useful second-hand garments for their fathers and mothers. We also had the pleasure of listening to songs sung by Mrs. Atkins (M. Lansdell), Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), S. Rothwell, V. Phillips, E. Lawton.

We have now the evidence of one of our Old Girls as to the urgent needs of Hulme. Gladys Wilkinson, who has been doing district nursing there in the course of her hospital training, has seen for herself the poverty of the district. She adds a plea for the very tiny babies, for whose coming but scant preparations are made.

The following forty-three members were present:—Miss Clark, Miss Andrews, Miss Baguley, Miss Benton, Miss Buller, Miss Cooper, Miss Evington, Miss Quarby, M. and D. Ashworth, Mrs. Atkins (M. Lansdell), W. and M. Broadbent, F. Chadwick, Mrs. Cromar (V. Shaw), N. Dean, Mrs. Eastwood (B. Potter), B. Fletcher, Mrs. Fletcher (M. Crompton), Mrs. Garfitt (L. Johnson), O. Garfitt, I. Gillespie, Mrs. Gillespie (M. Wood), M. Hartley, M. Higgs, H. Johnson, B. Leach, M. Kershaw, D. Knott, E. Macpherson, I. Mills, D. Neild, Mrs. Orme (M. Fletcher), V. Phillips, S. Rothwell, M. and F. Simpson, M. Smith, L. Snowdon, Mrs. Stephenson (H. Marcroft), M. Stott, E. Tetlow, F. Thorpe, D. Turner, E. Wardle, Mrs. Watson (B. Holt), A. Watson, M. Wilde, A. Winterbottom, Mrs. Wood (E. Johnson).

GAMES.

In regard to games there is practically nothing to report this year. Again, our Old Girls are so fully occupied with war work that the captains find it impossible to make up their teams. After all, who would play when they might be working for our Great Cause?

A cricket match, v. the School was played on May 30th, 1916. The team comprised Mrs. Gillespie (M. Wood), M. Johnson, P. Rye (captain), E. Holt, Dorothy Jackson, L. Holroyd, I. Wood, D. Knott. The School won, the results being : Old Girls, 59 ; the School, 80 for one wicket.

The return match was arranged for Thursday, July 13th, but owing to much bad weather previous to that date and several heavy showers on the day only half the Old Girls' team turned up. These had a very enjoyable practice, as it turned out beautifully fine after 3-30 p.m.

HOCKEY.

The only hockey match of the season was played on Thursday, March 15th, at the School. The Captain, May Johnson, could gather only a team of five. Miss Benton came to the rescue, making six against the School's seven. The result was a win for the Old Girls, the score being 6--4. The players for the Old Girls were E. Shaw, M. Bromley, L. Holroyd, M. Johnson, Miss Benton, and Mrs. Gillespie (May Wood).

ROLL OF HONOUR.

THE GREAT WAR, 1914.

CORRESPONDENCE.

For reasons of space we can publish only extracts from some interesting letters received from several of our Old Girls.

Alice West tells how, in Geneva, she and her sisters are working for us and our Allies in various ways, such as helping at bazaars and concerts in aid of the Red Cross, and for the prisoners of war. Alice takes her share of duty at the Dispensaire des Samaritains, one week as aide-infirmière, the next as infirmière, a post which brings with it much responsibility.

Bertha Martland is attached to one of the General Hospitals of the B.E.F., in France. She leads a very strenuous life, rising at 6-15 a.m., and hard at work often till 8-15 p.m. "Splendid work, nothing but real nursing all the time, with the added work of convoys of wounded constantly coming in, and evacuations going out." She says the men themselves are splendid, so cheery and grateful. She considers that there is plenty of scope for V.A.D. Nurses if they know anything. [And if they are thoroughly sound physically, and equal to the tremendous strain. A nurse who falls ill is only a burden, not a help.—Ed.]

Mrs. Lomas (H. Taylor) makes an earnest appeal for workers trained for social service. She describes the sordidness of the homes, so called, in our slums, of the squalor and disease to be found there, where often a family lives, eats, sleeps and works in the one room, and even the bedclothes are pawned for food. She begs for these poor creatures the help of their better educated sisters to teach them to rise above these sordid surroundings. There is a great field open to the social worker whose heart is in the work and whose love quickens her tact. They reap a rich reward when they see some poor woman take heart again, or some ailing child sent to a convalescent home to be nursed back to health and strength.

Eugenia Cooper writes that she is happily settled at Owens. She tells how every moment is fully occupied, that there are extra lectures to get through the work for the first M.B. in March, after which the Medical Course begins in earnest. She is taking her share in the social life of the College by helping at concerts, and we who know how sweetly she sings are sure that she is very welcome there.

Dorothy Brocklehurst, who has returned with her mother to Russia, gives a most interesting account of her journey and of the district in which she lives.

They went via Bergen, of course, and she tells of the splendid scenery between Bergen and Christiania, of the mountains whose summits are clothed in snow; of numerous lakes with wooded shores or bare rocks rising almost perpendicularly from the water's edge, giving a desolate appearance to the landscape. At times when skirting the lakes the railway track on the mountain side is so narrow that it seems as if one must be hurled into the lake below.

Recent railway restrictions in England however, are as nothing compared with the difficulties attending travelling in Russia. They had to book again at Petrograd, and paid a man six shillings to wait his turn for three hours at the booking office, and even then, he got only second class tickets not in a sleeping car. Dorothy continues:—"We were there an hour and a half before the train started and found that there was not even standing room. We went into a first class corridor and found five empty, locked compartments; we had been told that all the places had been taken in the first class. These compartments were taken one by one till only one remained. Three hours after entering the train the guard opened the compartment for us, but mother had to pay sixteen shillings on each ticket and no receipt was given." The compartments were evidently held for the highest bidder.

Her home is in one of the prettiest districts in Russia, there is a beautiful river, woods and forests on all sides with wild fruits and birds in plenty. No wonder that she finds it a great change from living in Oldham.

NOTES.

Miss Sharman is Assistant Manager of a Munitions works in England.

Miss McHardy has given up teaching, and is working for a medical degree at the London School of Medicine for Women.

Miss Gwynne has returned from Canada, and is now nursing at a V.A.D. Hospital near Hyde Park.

Miss Clegg is Geography Mistress at the Southend County School for Girls. After completing her special course of geography at Oxford she was asked by the organisers of the School of Geography to assist as demonstrator during the summer vacation course.

Marjorie Martland has joined the staff of the Scottish Women's Red Cross Hospital at the Abbaye de Royaumont, near Paris. This is an auxiliary hospital to the French military service. They have about 350 beds. The unit is winning golden opinions. At first the lady doctors were received with caution; then by degrees, as their work was seen to stand the test, they were given the most serious cases, and happy indeed are the "Poilus" who find themselves in the gentle hands of the ladies of Royaumont.

Annie Lloyd has passed the London Medical Degree Examination, and is now L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., and has since been doing some hospital work.

Ada Wormald has been awarded the Royal Red Cross Medal of Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service. She served in Alexandria and on hospital ships during the Gallipoli Expedition. She is now matron at the Government Hospital, Benha, Egypt.

Gladys Cooper has gained the M.A. degree of the Victoria University, 1916, with First-class Honours in French. She was placed first in the First Class, and was awarded a Graduate Scholarship. She is now taking the Training Course at the University, Manchester.

Dora Hudson has gained a First-class in the Teachers' Diploma of the Victoria University, and is now Assistant Mistress at the Bolton High School.

Marion Chadwick has passed the Final General French and Preliminary, Honours Examination in English Language and Literature, Part I. of the Victoria University Degree. She has left Owens on account of her health.

Janet Macpherson, at Girton College, has passed the second part of the Mathematical Tripos in Class II., and is now training at the Manchester University for a Secondary Teachers' Diploma.

Ethel Lloyd has been awarded by the University College, London, the Andrews Scholarship for the best Second-year Student in History and Languages.

Eva Hutchinson has been awarded a Mrs. Charles Lees' Leaving Scholarship of £50 a year, tenable for three years, held at Somerville College, Oxford. She was placed second on the list of candidates taking the Somerville College Entrance Scholarship Examination in English.

Eugenia Cooper was granted a Foundation-leaving Scholarship of £25 a year for four years, which she holds at the Manchester University Medical School.

Dorothy Knott and Constance Wilde are working for the Degree of the Faculty of Commerce at the Victoria University, Manchester.

Amy Throup has gained the First-class Diploma of the Manchester School of Domestic Economy, and is now Domestic Science Mistress at Low Wood and the Clergy Daughters' School, Casterton, Kirkby Lonsdale.

Ellen Carson has passed the Higher Frœbel Examination, Part II., gaining a First-class in Class Teaching, and Second-class in Handwork. Her tutors thought so well of her work that she was appointed on the staff of her old Training College at Withington.

Winifred Cooper has finished her two years' course, gained the Teachers' Training Diploma at the Manchester University, and is appointed to the Deaf and Dumb Schools, Old Trafford. She finds the work most interesting, and in her spare time she teaches the children swimming, drill, and various games.

Dorothy Cliff has gained the Teachers' Diploma, Second-class, of the Manchester University. She was for a short time English and Junior Music Mistress at the Secondary School, Aldershot, and at Christmas was appointed to the Grammar School, Rothbury, Northumberland.

Edith Mellor is appointed Head Mistress of St. Anne's Infant School, Royton. She will begin her new work in April.

Gertrude Browne is now teaching at the Council School, Stockingford, Nuneaton; Nora Whitehead at Marsden National School; Hannah Gartside at Platt Lane School, Dobcross; Doris Schofield at Derker; Sarah Brooks is a Student Teacher under the Oldham Education Committee; Dorothy Little is at Derker; Alice Kent is no longer teaching, she is now at the Westinghouse Works, Trafford Park.

Phyllis Lansdell, after a course of study in London, has been chosen by Sir Thomas Beecham to appear with his Opera Company during their visit to Manchester. We wish her a great success.

Emma Brittain has been for four years a fully qualified dispensing chemist.

Ethel Quin has given up teaching and is now a clerk in the Bank of Liverpool.

Doris Turner is studying Pharmacy at the Northern College, Manchester.

Florence Harker has given up nursing, and is now a private governess.

Rhoda Gartside and Winifred Kirkman are at the Training College, Bingley.

Elsie Millington has won the First Prize, value £3, and the Silver Medal for Plain Cookery, practical and theoretical, of the London and City Guilds. She was placed first in the kingdom. She has also passed the examinations at the Technical School, St. Annes-on-Sea, gaining distinction in needlework and First-class in French.

Amy Barrowelough is in the drawing office at Messrs. Platt's works.

Kathleen Spencer is taking a three months' course of study in singing in London under Sir Henry Wood.

Phyllis Robinson is acting as clerk in her father's office.

Bessie Mellodew is leaving the Eastern General Hospital, Cambridge, having been accepted for service abroad. She goes to Salonica.

Elsie Shaw has resigned her work at the Ear and Throat Hospital, Manchester, as she is needed at home.

Marion Chadwick, Isabel Kay, and Edith Mellor are enthusiastic leaders to the Girl Guides.
