THE HULME GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
RECORD OF THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION,
OLDHAM. = 1926-1927.

BCOKPLATE PRESENTED TO THE LIBRARY.

THE OLD GIRLS' ASSOCIATION.

CONSTITUTION AND RULES.

The Society shall be called The Old Girls' Association of the Oldham Hulme Grammar School for Girls.

The President shall be the acting Head Mistress of the School, and the Secretary shall be one of the members of the School Staff.

The affairs of the Association shall be conducted by a Committee consisting of the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and sixteen representative members, of whom one shall be elected by the Staff, fourteen shall be elected by the Old Girls, and one by the members of Form Upper VI. Of the fourteen Old Girls' representatives two shall retire annually in rotation, but they shall be eligible for re-election, and the election shall take place at the December meeting.

Members who, without good cause assigned, absent themselves from Committee meetings for two consecutive years shall be considered to have resigned, and their places shall be filled up at the December meeting at the end of the second year during which they were absent from the meetings.

Full members (i.e., girls who are able to attend the meetings) shall pay a yearly subscription of 3/-. Country members, who are not eligible to attend meetings, shall pay 2/-. Both subscriptions will include the Record.

All subscriptions are due in December, and may be paid at the meeting. No notices will be sent to any member whose subscription is two years in arrears.

There shall be two meetings of the Association each year—at the beginning of December, and on the first Thursday in July, with the exception that in alternate years a picnic on the first Saturday in July shall take the place of the summer meeting at School.

During the last week in November each member shall send to the Secretary at least one warm, useful garment for the poor. Clothing that has been worn, if it is in good condition, is also acceptable.

The Record shall be issued during the Spring Term, and shall be sent to all members who have paid their subscriptions.

OFFICERS FOR 1927.

LORD EMMOTT

Chairman of the Governors for Thirty Years.

The sudden death of Lord Emmott in December deprived the school not only of a very distinguished Chairman, but also of There is no need to speak here at any length of his a real friend. work for the State; that has been done elsewhere; it is enough to say that in this work he upheld the very best standards of British public life. In spite of his many interests, both political and industrial, he never failed to show his keen concern for the welfare of the school, and his willingness to use for our advantage his abilities, experience and opportunities. He rarely missed a meeting or a public function, and our last Speech Day in November, when the address was given by his friend Sir Arthur Haworth, is a very happy memory for us all; the helpfulness and geniality of both we shall not forget. He held the view that the usefulness of the school was largely measured by the usefulness and success of its girls in after life, and on that occasion he expressed the hope that they would not only be proud of it during school life but would always retain their affection and loyalty.

The Staff have reason to be grateful not only for his work for this school, but also for his great interest in the welfare of the teaching profession as a whole. The Superannuation Act of 1925 was based on the recommendations of the Government Committee of 1922-23, of which Lord Emmott was Chairman; his knowledge of financial matters led him to believe that the teachers' contributions should be centrally funded, and it was a disappointment to him that the recommendation on this point was not adopted. Pressure of time alone prevented him from undertaking other important educational work of that type.

All who knew him, even the youngest in school, and particularly perhaps, those who were privileged to share his friendship in some degree, can seek example in his devotion to duty, his high-principled character and his kindly and gracious manner.

D.B.

Your editor's first duty is to offer sincere apologies for the late appearance of the Record this year. The delay is due to an extra fierce attack of influenza just before the half term which left behind it a state of chronic laziness for several weeks during which ordinary work was a struggle and any extra task an impossibility.

You may perhaps exclaim "The delay means all the more news for us." But remember that the amount of news your Record contains must always rest mainly with you. I wish you appreciated this point more fully, and would send to school the oft requested but, alas, seldom received post card bearing any items of interest that may come to your knowledge.

The Old Girls' contribution to the Building Fund has now been spent in accordance with the decisions arrived at when the question was discussed at the winter meeting. December 1925. £100 has been handed to the Governors towards the reduction of the debt. The Secretary has received from them the following acknowledgement:—

9th March, 1927.

Dear Madam,

The Governors desire me to convey their thanks to the Old Girls' Association for the donation of £100 towards the Building Fund.

Yours faithfully,

Ernest Booth.

Clerk to the Governors.

It is in virtue of this £100 that the music room is regarded as your gift. The tablet, an oak panel bearing the words "The Old Girls Music Room" is now fixed to the door. Miss Mitchell was able to enjoy for a few weeks its cosiness and the bright orange curtains giving an illusion of sunshine (for it is by nature a chilly room), and her successor declares it to be the nicest music room she has ever known.

The synchronised clocks have been installed, and so far they have worked exceedingly well, so well that Form IV. had this year the supreme joy of making their Form Mistress an April fool by asking with much concern "What is the matter with the clock?" The clocks are a real boon, the bells work accurately, the master clock keeps good time, and all the clocks throughout the building tell the same hour. If there is any fault to be found with the punctuality of the School it lies now with the human element only.

The balance still remaining has been entrusted to Miss Bailey to be used at her discretion in improving the playground at the College Road end of the building—an urgently needed improvement. The balance sheet, drawn up by the treasurer, N. Macpherson is appended. There is one item which does not appear on it, because it has not yet been bought, namely, a small table for the music room, which will cost about 50,-.

The library now possesses it own book plate which will be gummed inside the cover of all the books, and you will see from the print of it which forms the frontispiece that there is a space for the donor's name.

The Summer meeting this year is fixed for Saturday, July 2nd, for which day a pienic to Alton Towers is being arranged. Members who go will have to be up betimes, for we must leave Oldham soon after 8 a.m. They will be repaid, for Alton is a charming place, the park is extensive and is thrown open without restriction. We must return rather early, so that those who live out of Oldham should have no anxiety about getting home. Particulars will be sent out in good time. Notices will probably be in your hands even before you receive this.

Old Girls' Blazers, which are very much admired, are supplied by Messrs. Cole & Son, Moult Street, Manchester, but only on a receipt signed by the Secretary. Applications for badges 5/-, and blazer forms to be made to Miss Evington.

Founders' Day last year was held on Monday, May 3rd when Professor Conway gave the address. Olive Oates as head girl read the lesson from Ecclesiasticus, and the new banner, representing the Assheton Arms, and worked mainly by the girls in Form VI. was hung from the reading desk for the first time.

Professor Conway in his address shewed that much could be learnt in school, and only there, from the accumulated wisdom and thought of the past generations. Experience might be, and was a good teacher but not the only one; if it were we should have to discard the labours of those who have gone before and progress would be slow indeed.

The service, for as such we wish it to be regarded, begins at 11-30 a.m., and lasts about an hour, and is meant, not only for girls now at school, but also for all Old Girls who can so plan their work as to be present. It is a remembrance of and a giving of thanks year by year for those benefactors to whose liberality in the past we owe our present opportunities for the acquiring of sound learning, and, naturally, regarding it as a service we deprecate any applause. Public schools which have their own chapel would hold their service in it, and our hall is our chapel on that occasion.

MEETINGS IN 1926.

The summer meeting was held at School on July 1st. As the weather was fairly kind, tennis and clock golf were possible.

The chief event was the presentation to Miss Mitchell of a cheque for £72, subscribed to by Governors, past mistresses and Old Girls. We were very pleased to welcome Miss Marjory Lees to the meeting. In a charming little speech she expressed the affection, esteem and gratitude we all feel for Miss Mitchell and her years of work in the school. Everyone wishes her the best of health and the full enjoyment of her well-earned leisure.

The following signed the visitors' book :---

Miss Lees, Miss Bailey, Miss Boore, Miss James, Miss Mitchell, Miss Shaw, Miss Evington, A. Ashton, I. Ashton, E. Bentley, L. Braddock, E. Bright, W. and M. Broadbent, D. Brocklehurst, S. Brooks, E. THE SOIRÉE.

The second soirée arranged by the joint committees of the Associations of Old Boys and Old Girls was held in the Schools on December 3rd, 1926, and was even a greater success than the first held in March. Both Schools were thrown open, and after the reception of the guests in the Girls' Sewing Room, the usual entertainments were given in various parts of the buildings—concerts, conjuring, displays in the laboratories and in the girls' art room, and dancing in the large hall. The profits from the 480 tickets sold were equally divided between the two associations.

GAMES.

The following report of games has been sent in by Phyllis Wilde.

My dear Old Colleagues and Old Girls,

It was a very great surprise and pleasure to me to receive your handsome present last July, at the close of my thirty years' teaching at the Hulme Grammar School, and I heartily welcome this opportunity of thanking all those who so kindly remembered me. No doubt you would like to know how your gift is going to be used. In the first place I wanted some permanent memorial of my old pupils and the time we spent together. This takes the form of a diamond ring with my initials and the date engraved within. I have also a clock, an easy chair and a heating stove for my room, which have been a boon during the winter. I am also looking forward to a holiday in Italy sometime, and even then I do not think my present will be quite exhausted!

I prize the handworked leather case in which the cheque was presented, and above all the little book containing your names, one hundred and forty-four of them! After so many years of work it is gratifying to feel that one is not forgotten even by those who came to the school in its early days. One thing would make it more interesting still, and that is a photograph of each, so if you have any snaps or post cards of yourselves I should be delighted to receive them. There may come a time in the future when it will be my greatest pleasure to go over the past, then "I shall count myself in nothing else so happy as in remembering my good friends." I shall be pleased if any of you can call and see me, but please send a card first.

Thanking you all very much,

I remain,

Your sincere friend,
Alice M. Mitchell.

AN EDUCATIONAL VISIT TO AMERICA.

Thirty most favoured mortals sailed from Southampton on board the renowned "Berengaria" on the morning of Saturday, April 16th, bound for New York City as the privileged guests of Miss Helen Parkhurst, the originator of the Dalton Plan.

We had our first glimpse of America about 9 o'clock on Friday morning, April 23rd. Unfortunately the morning was hazy, so the sky line of New York's skyscrapers-considered one of the most remarkable sights in the world and of which the Americans are very proud, was not very distinct. However, we could see it, and those towering buildings of varying shapes and sizes made a strange, and to me, quite un-English spectacle. We glided past the Statue of Liberty, Governor's Island, Ellis Island, and finally with remarkable quietness our great ship docked. We passed the emigration officials without any trouble. But not so one little maid who, judging by her short, tight-fitting jacket, the handkerchief on her head, and her appearance in general, came from Central Europe. She seemed a lone specimen of humanity. The lady doctor took charge of her and would, we understood, see her safely on to Ellis Island.

Then came the hurly-burly and noise of New York, first at the customs and later in the city itself—a most bewildering experience. Yet it was amusing to note how soon we were daring the traffic, or hailing peremptorily from the pavement a taxi cab, or rushing to the 'El'—the overhead trainroad, like true New Yorkers.

Miss Parkhurst and the Faculty with remarkable forethought had drawn up a very full and wonderful programme, which included, besides the school visits, numerous delightful receptions and excursions.

We became acquainted first with Miss Parkhurst's schools namely, the Children's University and the Dalton High Schools, the former taking juniors and the latter seniors. The Dalton Plan is, of course, in operation throughout; its chief features being the conference where the children discuss the lesson under the leadership of a class-member, the assignments—the work planned by the teacher, and the psychological tests showing whether the child uses its full mental powers. The Staffs, to whom we were greatly indebted, were most helpful making us feel at home at once. We went quite freely into any room, observing any lesson we desired, and so we spent many enjoyable and interesting periods in these schools.

Realising that we might wish to study more than one aspect of the educational work of New York City, Miss Parkhurst arranged that we should visit several schools of different type. An unusual school was the Lincoln School of Teachers College run on experimental lines. We visited, too, an ordinary elementary school where the children numbered about 2,500 and the teaching staff 62. A woman was the head of this huge organisation. Later, we went to the Horace Mann School attached to the Columbia University. We saw also schools for settlement and reformative work at the Greenwich Settlement and at the Heckscher Foundation. Thus we gained a comprehensive idea of the educational work of New York.

An amazing feature of our trip was the exceeding kindness of everybody, especially the parents of the children in Miss Parkhurst's school, who simply overwhelmed us. An outstanding event was the day we were taken in automobiles along the Hudson River to Bear Mountain. On the return journey we were entertained in a most delightful manner by Mrs. Morgan Hamilton, the sister of Pierrepont Morgan. Her estate is considered the finest in the States, and it is never thrown open to the public, so we were indeed blessed!

When we passed on to Toronto, we met with the same kindliness everywhere, and we sailed from Montreal with a strangely humble yet uplifted feeling that we had been greatly privileged in meeting so many kind-hearted people.

We reached the Old Country again in brilliant sunshine, and how very levely it looked to us who had seen so many strange and levely scenes. "What can they know of England who only England know!" Yes, that is true; very true.

THE GREAT WAR.

You all must have seen hanging in the corridor of the Old School the list of those Old Girls who undertook special service during the Great War. According to the promise then given, a permanent copy of this list is to be inscribed. It ought to be as complete as we can make it. Therefore, if you know of any names omitted from this list, please send them in with particulars of service.

The following is the list as it now stands:-

Doctors, Nurses, &c.-A. Wormald, M. Nicholson, B. Mellodew, M. Bentley, H. and M. Johnson, M. and B. Martland, M. Newton, M. Maw, D. Ashworth, M. Smith, D. Whitehead, B. Fletcher, A. Farrow, D. D. Ashton, M. Gaunt.

GIRL GUIDES.

Bertha Martland asks for volunteers for Girl Guide work. The Guiding movement is extending so rapidly in the district that a constant supply of helpers in various capacities is needed to cope with its growing requirements and to fill the gaps as they unavoidably occur. Bertha will welcome gladly any who are willing to help if they will communicate with her at Lyndhurst, Queen's Road, Oldham.

NOTES.

Miss Bailey has written elsewhere an appreciation of Lord Emmott whose death occurred suddenly on December 13th, 1926. He was almost from the beginning of the school's life our honoured Chairman of the Governors. Others have witnessed to his worth in public life. We the Old Girls of the Hulme Grammar School know that we owe more than we can say to his unremitting interest in the school and his zealous labours on its behalf. We always looked for him to preside on Speech Days, and his absence from the chair on that day will leave to many of us a blank that will never be adequately filled. We rejoice to know that the Lady Emmott has consented to take his place on the Board of Governors, for so the connection which has lasted for so many years remains unbroken, and Lady Emmott's gracious presence among us will compensate as nothing else could for what we have lost.

Miss Stott went out last autumn to Grahamstown, South Africa, to join an Anglican Sisterhood there. She was "clothed" on Easter Tuesday so that she is now a novice. Her work will be educational, and in preparation for it she is taking a two years' course for the Higher Bilingual Teachers' Training Certificate. The course is very interesting and comprises a most varied range of subjects. She seems very happy in the life she has chosen, and is looking forward greatly to having her friend. Miss Brownson with her next autumn. Miss Brownson will be known to some of you as she has helped us at school on more than one occasion.

Miss Mitchell is evidently enjoying her leisure after long years of strenuous work, as her letter on a previous page will shew.

Miss Schenzinger, now Mrs. Cecil Wardle, has gone back to teach at the Kilburne and Brondesbury High School.

Miss Laybourne is engaged in social work at the University Settlement at Plaistow, in the East End of London.

Miss Gillies Smith is teaching at Sheffield High School.

Mary Viner (Mrs. Claydon) has been appointed by the Governors of the Hulme Trust Estate as Governor of the School in place of Mrs. Newton who has resigned. So now the Old Girls have really their own representative on the Board of Governors.

Helen Whittaker passed Second Class Part II of the Natural Science Tripos, Cambridge, in Botany, June, 1926, and has been appointed Botany Mistress at the Wheelwright Grammar School for Girls, Dewsbury.

Annie Hadfield has gained a Second Class in the Final Honours School of English Language and Literature at Oxford, 1926. Mona Mathews has gained Second Class Honours in the Final History School at Oxford. 1926. She and A. Hadfield have spent another year at the Oxford Training College.

Constance Wilde has passed the London Final B.Sc.

Examination with Second Class Honours.

Isabel Shimeld has passed the Intermediate Law Examination June, 1926. She was one of sixty out of two hundred who passed in both Law and Trust Account and Book-keeping. Only one other woman passed in both subjects which are necessary for a full pass. Isabel has gone to the Manchester University to prepare for her final examination, which takes place in about two years' time.

Gladys Dawson has gained the diploma in dairying granted by the University of Reading, and also the certificate of the British Dairy Farmers' Association for butter and cheese making. She was until the end of December (1926) at the Lady Somerset Homes at Duxhurst, Reigate. Gladys came to school a short time ago, and gave the girls an entertaining little talk about the course at Reading. She is an enthusiast on the subject, and strongly recommends dairying as a career for those who like country life and are not afraid of hard work. Reading University now grants degrees in Agriculture, which includes dairy farming.

Daisy Millington was appointed Head Mistress of the Leasowe Hospital School for Cripple Children in September,

Bertha Martland came to school on March 14th, to give a lecture on Italian painting. She gave first some pages of Florentine history, then took the work of three great painters—Giotto, Fra Angelico and Ghirlandaio, as illustrating three phases of Florentine art, and talked most delightfully about the pictures and the city that she knows well. Most of the fine slides that she showed us were made for her after her long stay in Italy.

Mary Simpson has just returned from a most thrilling trip to America, primarily to see the Dalton system of teaching in operation. She saw much more than that, as she tells us on a previous page.

Dorothy Lord was appointed Geography Mistress at the Ernest Bailey County School, Matlock, September, 1926.

Sarah Stock has been appointed Head Mistress of the Infants' Department of the Freehold School, and Martha Lewis (Mrs. Knott) has taken her place as Head Mistress of St. Mark's Infants' School.

Olga Robson is teaching at the Waterloo Council School, Senior Department.

Hilda Ward is teaching at Derker.

Frances Whitehead is teaching dressmaking at the Women's Institute Evening Classes.

Mary Mellor is Cookery Mistress at the Hulme Day

Continuation School since October, 1925.

Mary Mellodew is now teaching at the Chadderton Higher Standard School.

Nellie Brierley is teaching the Infants at the Council School. Rossington, a colliery village near Doncaster.

Dora Rountree is in charge of a Rescue Home, near Plumstead.

Alice Kent undertook last year the management of a Holiday Home at Kent's Bank.

Mary Whitehead is a clerk at the Inland Revenue Office, High Street, Oldham.

Marion Greenwood has left the High School, Stockport, and is secretary to the Clinic in that town.

Eileen Martin has passed first class in the City and Guilds of London Institutes' Examination in Dressmaking, and the Union of Lancashire and Cheshire Institutes' Examination in Women's Tailoring-principles, first-class with distinction; practical, first-class. She has been awarded a Sons of John, Platt Scholarship and an H. H. Wareing prize.

Mary Collins has passed the Assistants' Examination of the Apothecaries' Hall, and is now dispensing for Dr. Taylor, at Failsworth.

Florence Holden is assisting at Messrs. Thompson's, Chemists.

Muriel Farrar and Marion Longworth are at the Children's Hospital, Manningham, Bradford.

Mary Johnson is accepted for training at St. George's Hospital, London.

Mary Holmes has passed the test which decides that she shall remain a probationer at the Pendlebury Children's Hospital.

Freda Nutter is making good progress with her singing.

She was invited to broadcast from Daventry last spring.

Olive Oates is now at Oxford where she is studying history. Freda Wroe is at the Manchester University, and is in residence at Ashbourne Hall.

Jane Greaves has gone to Homerton Training College; Bessie Ramsden to Edge Hill; Nellie Wheeler to Hull; Evelyn Butterfield to Portsmouth; Hannah Hardman is at the Freebel Educational Institute Kindergarten Training College, London.

Dorothy Curtis, Marjorie Tetlow, Phyllis Firth are working at the Oldham School of Art.

Lilian Carson is at the Horticultural College, Studley, Warwickshire.

Jean Carson is following a course at the Domestic Science College, Manchester.

Gladys Jones is a typist at the H.M. Stationery Office, Hollinwood.

Frances Smith (Mrs. Watson) has gone with her husband to West Africa. Mr. Watson is a Master in a Government School, under the direction of the C.M.S.

Ethel Farrar (Mrs. Costadine) has gone to her husband to Bucharest.

Ethel Harrison is learning millinery.

Nellie Winterbottom (Mrs. Siddall) has a needlework and crafts shop in Union Street.

This year for the first time pupils now in the school have been allowed to compete in the scholarship examination. Among others, Dorothy Garfitt, daughter of L. Johnson, entered and was placed second on the list. She was therefore awarded an Assheton Scholarship.

Correction.—Vera Norman is still teaching needlework at Miss Dronsfield's School, and is also helping Mrs. Hamer Cooper.
